

SET A (ODD Roll Numbers)

Q1) Write a program to send an integer array to the server from client. Display the array on the server side. Further, swap the second position element and with the second last element of the array on the server side and display this new array on the client.

Q2) Configure the following network configuration of 3 different networks using 2911 router. Use Class A IP for LAN-1, Class C for LAN-2, and Class B for LAN-3. Take an appropriate IP for router. Test the connectivity for the designed network.

